In traditional Chinese philosophy, "chi" represents the universal life force that governs wellbeing and vitality. For good health to prevail, it is believed that "chi" must flow freely within the body. Inspired by this ancient philosophy, a team of experts have created signature therapies that draw from the Five Elements Theory, in which Metal, Wood, Water, Fire and Earth are in balance to create the perfect "chi" within you. The therapies also draw inspiration from the legend of Shangri-La. From this wondrous world, secrets are revived and re-created, resulting in a fusion of ancient healing traditions, philosophies and rituals that have now found a permanent home at CHI the Spa at Shangri-La.

Shangri-La's Fijian Resort & Spa Carnival

Ms Lusiana Lalabalavu was crowned the 2008 Ms Shangri-La Fiji Queen and Ms Siga Vakatotu was crowned Ms Charity. Second runner up was Ms Ranjini Reddy and 1st runner up was Ms Swartika Joti. Lusi and Ranjini work in the Sales Department and Swartika works at our CHI Spa.

The 2008 Shangri-La Fiji Carnival was held at Cuvu College, from May 1 – 3, to raise money for charity. The event which began in 2006 has gained in popularity and includes a beauty contest, food stalls and a fun programme for the community over three days. The Carnival theme was Tourism – Our Hope & Future. Six contestants represented six teams from the Resort. Money raised in previous Carnivals has been donated to the Sigatoka special school and orphanages in the western division.
